

Leaving on a Jet Plane, John Denver
Use A, D, E for Peter, Paul & Mary version

Verse:           G                           C
All my bags are packed, I'm ready to go,
          G                           C
I'm standing here outside your door,
          G                           C                   D
I hate to wake you up to say goodbye.
          G                           C
But the dawn is breaking, it's early morn,
          G                           C
The taxi's waitin', he's blowing his horn,
          G                           C                   D
Already I'm so lonesome I could cry.

Chorus:        G                    C
So kiss me and smile for me,
G                                    C
Tell me that you'll wait for me,
G                                    C                    D
Hold me like you'll never let me go.
                  G                    C
'Cause I'm leaving on a jet plane,
G                                    C
Don't know when I'll be back again,
G    C                                D
Oh, babe, I hate to go.

Verse:                    G                            C
There's so many times I've let you down,
          G                            C
So many times I played around,
          G                            C                    D
I tell you they don't mean a thing.
          G                            C
Every place I go I'll think of you,
          G                            C
Every song I sing I'll sing for you,
          G                            C                            D
When I come back I'll bring your wedding ring.

Chorus:

Verse:    G                            C
Now the time has come to leave you,
G                                    C
One more time let me kiss you,
          G                            C                            D
Then close your eyes, I'll be on my way.
G                                    C
Dream about the days to come,
          G                            C
When I won't have to leave alone,
G                                    C                            D
About the times I won't have to say.

Chorus:
