

The Old Woman Who Swallowed A Fly

Words by Rose Bonne, music by Alan Mills

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a fly.

A D G
I don't know why she swallowed a fly, perhaps she'll die.

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a spider

A D
That wriggled and jiggled and tickled inside her.

G
She swallowed the spider to catch the fly,

A D G
I don't know why she swallowed a fly, perhaps she'll die.

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a bird.

A D
How absurd, to swallow a bird.

G
She swallowed the bird to catch the spider ...

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a cat.

A D
Imagine that! She swallowed a cat.

G
She swallowed the cat to catch the bird ...

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a dog.
A D
What a hog! To swallow a dog.
G
She swallowed the dog to catch the cat ...

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a goat.
A D
She opened her throat and swallowed a goat.
G
She swallowed the goat to catch the dog ...

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a cow.
A D
I don't know how she swallowed a cow.
G
She swallowed the cow to catch the goat ...

G
There was an old woman who swallowed a horse.
A D
She's dead, of course.
