Patty & Mildred Hill*

*There is little dispute that in the 1890s the Hill sisters wrote the precursor to Happy Birthday, a song for Patty's kindergarten students they called Good Morning to All, which featured the same melody. The argument is that the lyrics to Happy Birthday developed informally and no one can rightly claim them.

Happy Birthday is the most frequently sung song in the English language, according to the Guinness Book of World Records, surpassing the works of Bach, Beethoven and the Beatles.
