Moscow Nights

English words by J.B.H. Silverman

Verse 1

Am D Dm E7 Am
Stillness in the grove, not a rustling sound;
C F G7 C
Softly shines the moon clear and bright.
B7 E7 Am Dm
Dear, if you could know how I treasure so
Am Dm E7 Am
This most beautiful Moscow night.
B7 E7 Am Dm
Dear, if you could know how I treasure so
Am Dm E7 Am
This most beautiful Moscow night.

Verse 2

Am D Dm E7 Am
Lazily the brook, like a silv'ry stream
C F G7 C
Ripples gently in the moonlight;
B7 E7 Am Dm
And a song that fades as in a dream
Am Dm E7 Am
In the spell of this summer night.
B7 E7 Am Dm
And a song that fades as in a dream
Am Dm E7 Am
In the spell of this summer night.

Verse 3

Am D Dm E7 Am
Dearest, why so sad, why the downcast eyes,
C F G7 C
And your lovely head bent so low?
B7 E7 Am Dm
Oh, it's hard to speak - and yet not to speak
Am Dm E7 Am
Of the longing my heart does know.
B7 E7 Am Dm
Oh, it's hard to speak - and yet not to speak
Am Dm E7 Am
Of the longing my heart does know.

Verse 4

Am D Dm E7 Am
Promise me, my love, as the dawn appears
C F G7 C
And the darkness turns to light,
B7 E7 Am Dm
That you'll cherish, dear, through the passing years,
Am Dm E7 Am
This most beautiful Moscow night.
B7 E7 Am Dm
That you'll cherish, dear, through the passing years,
Am Dm E7 Am
This most beautiful Moscow night.

Note: Standard GCEA Soprano Ukulele Tuning. | Powered by UkeGeeks' Scriptasaurus • ukegeeks.com