Intro -x2-: D Em G A

A7 D Em C A
 He was born in the summer, of his twenty seventh year;

D Em C A
 Coming home to a place he'd never been before

D
 He left yesterday behind him,

Em C A
 you might say he was born again

D Em C A
 You might say he found a key for every door

D Em C A
 When he first came to the mountains, his life was far away;

D Em C A
 On the road and hanging by a song

D Em C A
 But the string's already broken, and he doesn't really care;

D Em C A
 It keeps changing fast, and it don't last for long

G A D
 But the Colorado Rocky Mountain high

G A D
 I've seen it raining fire in the sky

G A D A G
 The shadow from the starlight is softer than a lullaby

A D Em G
 Rocky Mountain high, Colorado

D Em C A
 He climbed cathedral mountains, he saw silver clouds below;

D Em C A
 he saw everything as far as you can see

D
 And they say that he got crazy once,

Em C A
 and he tried to touch the sun;

D Em C A
And he lost a friend but kept the memory

D Em C A
Now he walks in quiet solitude, the forests and the streams;

D Em C A
seeking grace in every step he takes

D Em C A
His sight has turned inside himself to try and understand;

D Em C A
the serenity of a clear blue mountain lake

G A D
And the Colorado Rocky Mountain high

G A D
I've seen it raining fire in the sky

G A D A G
talk to God and listen to the casual reply

A D Em G

D
Now his life is full of wonder,
Em C A
but his heart still knows some fear;
D Em C A
of a simple thing he cannot comprehend

D
Why they try to tear the mountains down,

Em C A
To bring in a couple more;

D Em C A
more people, more scars upon the land

G A D
And the Colorado Rocky Mountain high

G A D
I've seen it raining fire in the sky

G A D A G
I know he'd be a poorer man if he never saw an eagle fly
