Verse 1

C C7 F
I wandered today to the hill, Maggie,
C G G7
To watch the scene below.
C C7 F
The creek and the creaking old mill, Maggie,
C G9 C C7
Where we sat in the long, long ago.
F C
The green grove is gone from the hill, Maggie,
G D7 G G7
Where first the daisies sprung,
C C7 F
The creaking old mill is still, Maggie,
C G9 C Csus4 C
Since you and I were young. // //

Chorus:

F C
And now we are aged and grey, Maggie,
G D7 G G7
And the trials of life nearly done,
C C7 F
Let us sing of the days that are gone, Maggie,
C G9 C Csus4 C
When you and I were young. // //

Verse 2

C C7 F
A city so silent and lone, Maggie,
C G G7
Where the young and the gay and the best
C C7 F
In polished white mansions of stone, Maggie,
C G9 C C7

Have each found a place of rest,
 F C
 Is built where the birds used to play, Maggie,
 G D7 G G7
 And join in the songs that were sung.
 C C7 F
 For we sang just as gay as they, Maggie,
 C G9 C Csus4 C
 When you and I were young. // ///

█ Chorus

█ Verse 3

C C7 F
 They say I am feeble with age, Maggie,
 C G G7
 My steps are less sprightly than then.
 C C7 F
 My face is a well-written page, Maggie,
 C G9 C C7
 But time alone was the pen.
 F C
 They say we are aged and grey, Maggie,
 G D7 G G7
 Like spray by the white breakers flung,
 C C7 F
 But to me, you're as fair as you were, Maggie,
 C G9 C Csus4 C
 When you and I were young. // ///

█ Chorus - replace last line with the following:

C G9 C Csus4 C Csus2 C
 When you and I were young. // / / /
